

The Fifth Bulen Symposium on American Politics
“The Virtues of Partisanship (Are There Any?)”

plus a recap of the 2002 elections

Monday, November 25, 2002

University Place Conference Center Auditorium

Presented by the IUPUI Department of Political Science and the School of Public and Environmental Affairs

Juan Williams
National Public Radio and Fox News

Jonathan Karl
Cable News Network

Haynes Johnson
Pulitzer Prize-winning author and journalist

Preliminary Program

- 8:30-9:00 a.m. Check-in and coffee
- 9:00 a.m. Welcome
Gerald Bepko, Chancellor, IUPUI
Featured address
“Life on the Mississippi and Other Adventures of 2002”
Juan Williams
Pulitzer Prize-winning author, National Public Radio senior correspondent, and Fox News political analyst and commentator
- 9:30 a.m. “2002: Who Won Where and Why?”
Moderator: Prof. Margaret R. Ferguson, Department of Political Science, IUPUI
Panelists: Curtis Gans, Director, Committee for the Study of the American Electorate
Prof. Gerald Wright, Department of Political Science, Indiana University-Bloomington
Jeff Zeleny, National Political Correspondent, The Chicago Tribune
- 10:15 a.m. Featured address
“Congress before and after November 5th”
Jonathan Karl
Capitol Hill Correspondent
Cable News Network
- 10:45 “Parties, Strategists, and Campaigns Then and Now”
Moderator: Prof. Sheila Kennedy, School of Public and Environmental Affairs, IUPUI
Panelists: Frank Donatelli, Senior Vice President, McGuire Woods Consulting (Midwest coordinator, 1980 Reagan campaign)
Ed Rollins, former political director, Reagan White House

11:30

Featured address

“What Are Political Parties Good for, Anyway?”

David Wilhelm

Principal, Wilhelm & Conlan Public Strategies

Former Chairman, Democratic National Committee

Director, 1992 Clinton/Gore presidential campaign

Noon

Lunch

Luncheon program: “The National Parties at a Critical Moment”

Moderator: Haynes Johnson, Pulitzer Prize-winning author/journalist, Professor and Knight Chair, Merrill College of Journalism, The University of Maryland

Featured speakers:

Mr. Terry McAuliffe, Chairman, Democratic National Committee (invited)

The Hon. Marc Racicot, Chairman, Republican National Committee

1:30 p.m.

“The Parties and the Next Cycle: A Preview of McCain-Feingold’s Effects”

Moderator: Prof. Ellen Andersen, Department of Political Science, IUPUI

Sarah McCally Morehouse, Professor Emerita of Political Science, University of Connecticut

Robert F. Bauer, Chair, Political Law Group, Perkins Coie LLP (author, Soft Money Hard Law)

2:30 p.m.

“An Indiana Close-Up: Retrospective on 2002 and Preview of 2004”

Moderator: Brian Vargus, Director, Indiana University Public Opinion Laboratory

Panelists: Jim Kittle, Chairman, Indiana Republican Central Committee

Peter Manous, Chairman, Indiana Democratic Party

Jim Shella, Political reporter, WISH-TV, Indianapolis

Pre-Registration Form

Register me for this year's Bulen Symposium, at advance registration rates.

Number of persons attending _____ x $45 advance registration fee = $ _____
Your registration fee includes lunch, and parking in the conference center's underground garage. Registration at the door will be $55 per person.

Name(s): _____

Address: _____

___ Check enclosed. (Please make checks payable to Indiana University Foundation, with "Bulen Symposium" on the Memo line.)

___ Bill my credit card. Card type (e.g., Visa, MasterCard) _____

Card number _____ Exp. date _____

Signature: _____

Return to: Bulen Symposium on American Politics, c/o Professor Bill Blomquist, Dept of Political Science, 425 University Blvd., Indianapolis, IN 46202-5140